Dear Friend,

YoungLives is responding to God’s movement to meet dual demands of teen moms -- their need to know Christ and their need for support. We are excited to invite you into this movement and share how YoungLives camping can serve and benefit your ministry.

Each summer YoungLives camp weeks give teen moms and their babies the opportunity to hear about God’s hope for their future and have the best week of their lives. In order for these camp weeks to happen, we need hundreds of volunteers to serve as childcare workers. These volunteers will be the hands and feet of Christ at camp and will grow deeper in their faith.

Our camps for teen moms could not happen without teams of dedicated volunteers. Thank you for considering this missions opportunity.

Blessings,

YoungLives Leadership Team

Only Young Life is crazy enough to transform a camp to meet the unique challenges of the teen mom—including hundreds of strollers, cribs, diapers and toys. I was truly moved by the Body of Christ coming from all over to be unified in doing one thing—to love teen moms and their children for Jesus' sake. What a privilege! - Childcare Volunteer
